The Pain of Family Separation Still Weighs Heavily in Many Hearts
For some, World War II didn't end in 1945

Each year, thousands turn to the American Red Cross to request an international search for family members missing since the Holocaust and World War II. If you are among those searching, we can help you find peace of mind and build a lasting legacy for your family. Our services are confidential and free of charge. Contact the American Red Cross of Western Connecticut or the Jewish Federation of Greater Danbury to bring solace, hope, and in some cases, reunion after years of heartbreak and uncertainty.
